Pastors Invited to Unite and Strengthen the churches they lead with New Resource “Extraordinary Living: A Study In the Book Of James”

In a world torn by battered by waves of challenge, pressure, and transition, a new resource by Pastor Steve Robinson titled “Extraordinary Living: A Study In The Book Of James” unifies and strengthens churches with a six-week spiritual growth campaign focused on living a purpose-filled, faith-filled, peace-filled life.

NEW ORLEANS – A new resource for pastors, churches, and small groups is uniting, strengthening and reaching people with the power to fight against the drifts of life and reunite with the current of God’s purpose! Created by Pastor Steve Robinson of Church of the King in New Orleans, Louisiana, “Extraordinary Living: A Study In The Book Of James” is a six-week spiritual growth campaign focused on the transforming power to live the life God made them for. Pastors, churches, and individuals from all backgrounds are invited to participate in this spiritual journey, with free resources to unite and strengthen churches globally.

“People are hurting...our world is broken. The challenges of leading ministries are greater than ever before,” states Pastor Robinson. “People need practical keys to beat the drifts of life and live the extraordinary life God made for them.”

With sermon transcripts, small group videos and transcripts, personal devotionals, and a small group coaching guide, “Extraordinary Living: A Study In The Book Of James” provides everything pastors need to lead their churches in a study through the book of James. Starting January 14-15, Robinson will be leading his church through this study with more than 10,000 people participating in 1,000 small groups.

Robinson has two decades of experience with successful spiritual growth campaigns. This new study was written from his inspiration to unite churches, strengthen faith and bring stability to families, churches, and communities.

“I’ve always been impressed with Steve Robinson’s deep theological understanding and insight into the Bible,” shares Dino Rizzo, executive director of the Association of Related Churches (ARC). “His new resource, ‘Extraordinary Living,’ is no exception to this. This amazing guide... provides the keys to overcoming the drifts people are experiencing all around the world. I would recommend every pastor and church utilize this great resource.”
